OPUS TWO

WILLIAM TERWILLIGER, VIOLIN
ANDREW COOPERSTOCK, PIANO

Opus Two has been internationally recognized for its "divine phrases, impelling rhythm, elastic ensemble and stunning sounds," as well as its commitment to expanding the violin-piano duo repertoire. Violinist William Terwilliger and pianist Andrew Cooperstock have performed together extensively across six continents, served as artist-faculty at prestigious summer music festivals, and presented master classes worldwide from Juilliard to the China Central Conservatory. Champions of American music, Opus Two has recorded a critically acclaimed series of single-composer discs dedicated to the music of Aaron Copland, George Gershwin, Paul Schoenfield, Lowell Liebermann, Leonard Bernstein, and Stephen Sondheim. Andrew Cooperstock is currently Professor of Piano at the University of Colorado, and William Terwilliger is Professor of Violin at the University of South Carolina. Together, they are directors of the Global Seminar: Chamber Music France. opustwo.org

Updated September 2026
(132 words)